12. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Mr. Garner J. Cline, House Judiciary Committee staff, concerning the phone call received by John Warner, OGC, from Mr. Cyril Smith, of the firm of Covington and Burling. Cline told me that he has also received a call from Mr. Smith but unless he is instructed to do so by the Chairman, he will not be meeting with Mr. Smith on the [redacted] case. Although he will be pleased to meet with Agency representatives at any time on the subject, he has gone as far down the road in dealing with the [redacted] as he intends to go. The staff report listing the staff objections to the consideration [redacted] by the House Committee was given to the Chairman early in the year. I thanked Mr. Cline for the advice. Mr. Warner, OGC, has been advised. 25X1 25X1 25X1

I also reviewed with Mr. Cline possible changes in the Committee structure under various contingencies in the forthcoming election.

13. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. Jack Norpel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, who gave me a package of materials for [redacted] has been advised. 25X1

14. (Secret - JGO) In response to her request, I met with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, and told her that the two individuals that she had inquired about are suspected to be intelligence officers. She thanked me for the Agency's advice and said that USIA had suggested that the Senator not meet with the individuals.

15. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Mr. Richard Pearle, National Security and International Operations Subcommittee staff, and delivered to him several examples of the kind of material that the Soviet media put out regarding the SALT agreements. He gave me a short letter written in what appears to be in part Russian and part Hebrew. He asked if we would provide a rough translation. He said the letter has just been brought from Russia to the Senator.

16. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee and briefed him on the final outcome of the conference on the Ervin bill. I thanked him for his efforts and the efforts of Chairman on the Agency's behalf.
